B.Ed Semester I

Course: 1.1.5

INDIVIDUAL SEMINAR PRESENTATION

	Seminar Title
	Name of the Institution
1. Title Page
1. Thue I age	• Name of the Student Name of the Supervisor (If any)
2. Abstract	Shortest possible summary
(For hard copy)	No sentence should be repeated
	General motivation, goal of the paper
3. Introduction	The main topic
	Clarify Terminology
4. Significance of the Topic	Overview about works related to the presented topic
	Detailed presentation of assigned Topic
5. Main Text	Use visual helps (diagrams, drawings) etc.)
	,
	Evaluation of the usefulness of the
	presented topic
6. Conclusion	Own opinion
	• Comparisons
	- Comparisons
	Use APA format
7. Reference	• Cite web pages only if they are really important, otherwise put in footnote.
	important, other mise put in rounder.

GROUP PRESENTATION

- Students divide the task into sections. Each student writes one section, and then the group assembles the report by piecing the sections together.
- This might be a suitable option if students write about their particular areas as required by the task or project.

1.	Title Page Abstract(For hard	<ul> <li>Seminar Title</li> <li>Name of the Institution</li> <li>Name of the Class or Group</li> <li>Name of the Supervisor (If any)</li> <li>Shortest possible summary</li> </ul>
copy)	ribstract(1 or hard	Shortest possible summary
3.	Introduction	<ul><li>State the purpose of the title</li><li>Clarify the key words</li></ul>
4.	Main Points	<ul> <li>Illustration of the main topic</li> <li>Each sub-section to be divided among the group members</li> <li>Use real examples to illustrate the points</li> <li>Use visual help</li> </ul>
5.	Summary	Highlight the main points
6.	Conclusion	<ul> <li>State conclusion from the topic</li> <li>Compare with the opinions of other people</li> <li>Suggest what new work to be done</li> <li>Extend knowledge further</li> </ul>
7.	Reference	<ul> <li>Use a consistent format</li> <li>Cite web pages only if they are really important, otherwise put in footnote</li> </ul>

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

Title page	Write a clear topic sentence which tells what you are going to talk about Acknowledgements	Declaration of student's own act to give it validity (If necessary)
Summary or Abstract	Brief summarizing statement
	Give an overview of the content Introduction	Background or general orientation of the topic for general understanding of the area Outline of the issue that will be discussed (outline should be a general overview) Main idea which is the response of any question
Brief discussion of the topic	Open the paragraph by making a point
	Support the point with references Close the paragraph by linking back to the point student made to open the paragraph Conclusion/ Recommendation	Describe in general terms the most important points made
	Do not include new information • End with a comment, a resolution or suggestion for topic that may be
D. 6	addressed in future work.
References or Bibliography	• Use a consistent format
	• Cite web pages only if they are really important, otherwise put in footnote
Appendices	Add pictures, documents, etc. (If any)
	•